Re: Land Redevelopment Arbitration

Dear Bill:

This is in reply to your letter of December 1 wherein you outline your position with regard to the main issues. I would briefly like to state the County's position as follows:

1. Whether or not any compensation should be paid for the loads deposited in the landfill by the truck which was kept at the gate, and if so, how much?
2. Whether or not any compensation should be paid for the loads deposited at the landfill by trucks owned by the State and County, and if so, how much?
3. Whether or not any compensation should be paid in regard to loads deposited in the landfill by small pick-up trucks, and if so, how much?
4. The County's claim against Land Redevelopment Company for wages paid to County employees for cleaning up paper and other debris which had blown off the landfill on to adjacent properties. Also reimbursement to the County for expenses incurred in supplying portable generators and lights for the operation of the landfill.
